

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of San Diego Gas & Electric Company (U 902-E) for a Certificate Of Public Convenience & Necessity Valley-Rainbow 500kV Inter-Connect Project.

Application 01-03-036
(Filed March 23, 2001)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING GRANTING PETITION TO INTERVENE

On September 7, 2001, Centex Homes filed a petition to intervene as an interested party. No party opposes the petition. Centex Homes is a property owner in the area of the proposed transmission project. Centex Homes seeks to intervene in order to ensure that its concerns regarding the impacts on its development plans for the property are considered in the Commission's consideration of this project.

Although Centex did not appear at the prehearing conference, based on the schedule adopted, there is no prejudice to any party from Centex Homes intervening at this time. Centex Homes expects to actively participate in this proceeding through sponsoring testimony, filing briefs, or participating in oral argument. It is my conclusion that Centex Homes' interest may not at all times coincide with those of other parties.

Therefore, I will grant the motion to intervene by Centex Homes. Centex Homes is represented by the same counsel as another party to this proceeding, so no change will appear on the service list, except to reflect the addition of Centex Homes as a party represented by the law firm Jackson, DeMarco & Peckenpaugh.

Parties are reminded that all documents should be served by e-mail on the entire service list concurrent with hard copy service to the appearances and state service portion of the service list.

IT IS RULED that Centex Homes is granted Interested Party status.

Dated October 19, 2001, at San Francisco, California.
